RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF NON-COMPLIANT AMENDMENT

Dear Sir:

The Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment of August 18, 2006, has been received. Since this application is a reissue application, it is believed that the rule pertaining to claim identifiers does not apply to this application. Accordingly, it is believed that the Amendment filed August 15, 2006, was proper and should be entered. Nevertheless, in order to advance the prosecution of this application, the amendment is being resubmitted with claim identifiers. The term "original" has been used to identify the claims from the originally issued patent. The term "previously presented" has been used to identify the claims that have been added during the reissue process but have not been amended with this Response. The term "currently amended" applies to the one claim that has been amended since the last Amendment.

A complete listing of all of the claims for the above-identified application begins on page 2.

The Remarks begin on page 30.
